2.2. General Conditions of Membership.

2.2.1. 2.3. Sponsor Membership. Each Sponsor Member, while in good standing, shall be entitled to: (a) designate one representative to serve as a member of the Board of Directors (each member of the Board of Directors is a “Director”); (b) designate an alternative individual to act as a Director in the original Director’s stead, whether for a single meeting or as a standing alternate; and (c) all rights of Contributor Members.

- 2.4. - 2.6. Adopter Membership. Each Adopter Member, while in good standing, shall be entitled to: (a) subject to the availability of seats and to such requisites and limitations as the Board of Directors may define in its sole discretion from time to time, appoint non-voting representatives to attend all annual and special meetings of the Members held pursuant to Article 3 below; (b) receive copies by electronic distribution, without charge, of all Standards and other publications of the Corporation that are intended for public distribution, prior to distribution to the public; (c) apply to the certification program; (d) use the Corporation’s logo(s) and related trademark(s) for certified products in accordance with such applicable policies, requirements and/or usage guidelines as the Board of Directors may from time to time institute for such products; and (e) such other benefits, rights and privileges applicable to such Member’s Membership class as the Board of Directors may designate, or the Voting Members may from time to time institute by vote at any meeting of the Members.
- 2.7. Test Lab Membership. Each Test Lab Member, while in good standing, shall be entitled to: (a) subject to such limitations as the Board of Directors may define in its sole discretion from time to time, appoint non-voting representatives to attend and participate in meetings of the Compliance and Certification Working Group established by the Corporation (the “C&C WG”); (b) eligibility to apply for certification as an approved test laboratory under the Corporation’s certification program; (c) access to draft and final documents and Standards, in each case, to the extent prepared by the C&C WG; and (d) the rights specified in Section 2.6(e) above.
- 2.8. 2.9. Related Companies.

- 2.9.1. Only the legal entity that has been accepted as a Member of the Corporation and its Subsidiaries (as defined below) shall be entitled to enjoy the rights and privileges of such Membership; provided, however, that such Member (the “Controlling Member”) and its Subsidiaries shall be treated together as a single Member. For purposes of this Section, the term “Subsidiaries” shall mean all Related Companies that a Member controls (defined below), either directly or indirectly.
- 2.9.2. Only one Member that is part of a group of Related Companies shall be entitled to have a representative on the Board of Directors at one time. For purposes of these Bylaws, the term “Related Company” shall mean, with respect to a Member, any past, present or future Person (defined below) that (a) is owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by that Member; or (b) owns or controls that Member (either directly or indirectly); or (c) is under common ownership or control, directly or indirectly, with that Member. For purposes of the foregoing: (i) “owned”, “owns”, and “ownership” mean, with respect to a Person, the beneficial ownership of fifty percent (50%) or more of the voting equity securities or other equivalent voting interests of the Person (or less if the country of incorporation or the country of domicile of the entity requires that foreign ownership be less than fifty percent (50%)); (ii) “controlled”, “controls” and “control” means (A) the ability to elect a majority of the board of directors, (B) in relation to a partnership or other unincorporated association, the right to a share of more than half of its net assets or net income, (C) the power to direct or control the management and affairs of a Person (e.g., a subsidiary), or (D) the ownership of securities or other instruments representing fifty percent (50%) or more of the outstanding voting power of a particular Person, which shall conclusively constitute control for purposes of this definition (or less if the country of incorporation or the country of domicile of the entity requires that foreign ownership be less than fifty percent (50%)); and (iii) “Person” means a trust, corporation, partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, association, unincorporated organization or other legal or governmental entity.
- 2.9.3. If a Member is itself a consortium, membership organization, user group or other entity that has members or sponsors, then the rights and privileges granted to such Member shall extend only to the representatives (employees and individuals serving on a contractor basis) of such Member, and not to its members or sponsors, unless otherwise approved by the Board of Directors in a specific case from time to time.
- 2.9.4. Subsidiaries of Members may not apply for Membership as Voting Members. In the event that the Membership of such a Subsidiary is suspended or terminated, it may nevertheless participate in activities of the Corporation to the extent otherwise permitted for Subsidiaries that are not Members in their own right. If an entity applies for Membership while one of its Subsidiaries is a Voting Member, then such Subsidiary either: (i) shall be demoted to a non-voting Membership class effective the date of acceptance of Membership of the new Member (without refund of any Annual Membership Fees or other Financial Obligations already paid); or (ii) may choose to resign from its membership effective the date of acceptance of Membership of the new Member (which has the effect that the new Member and its Subsidiaries shall be treated together as a single Member); or (iii) may transfer its Membership to the Controlling Member to the extent otherwise permissible under Section 2.10.

Applications for Membership of Subsidiaries must fulfill Section 2.9.4. If a Member becomes the Subsidiary of another Member, rules equivalent to Section 2.9.5 shall be applied.

2.9.5. If a Member becomes the Subsidiary of a third party that is not a Member in the Corporation, such Member shall: (i) provide a co-signature of its new ultimate parent company as described in Section 2.9.4; or (ii) transfer its Membership to an appropriate parent company as described in Section 2.10, and, if such entity is not its ultimate parent, in addition provide a co-signature of such ultimate parent as described in Section 2.9.4.

2.10. Transfer of Memberships. Memberships shall be non-transferable, nonsalable and non-assignable, except that, subject to Section 2.9 above, any Member may transfer its Membership for the then current year to (i) a successor to substantially all of its business and/or assets, whether by merger, sale or otherwise; or (ii) to a Related Company that is also its direct or indirect parent; in each case, provided that the transferee agrees to be bound by these Bylaws, the Certificate of Incorporation and such policies and procedures as the Board of Directors may from time to time adopt.

2.11. Rights in Intellectual Property. All rules relating to intellectual property of any type submitted to or owned, adopted or created by the Corporation, including without limitation, (i) patents, patents applications and copyrights anywhere in the world and (ii) any of the same which may be represented by any Specifications and Other Solutions, guidelines, policies, procedures and tests (collectively, "Intellectual Property"), specific license rights that may be granted therein (to the extent that the Corporation has the right to grant the same), and the fees (if any) which the Corporation may charge Members and third parties for access to and use of such Intellectual Property, shall be subject to the Corporation's Intellectual Property Rights Policy (the "IPR Policy") and related rules of procedure (the "Rules of Procedure") as may from time to time be adopted, amended or modified by Hyper Majority Vote (defined in Section 4.10.3 below) of the Board of Directors.

2.12. Additional Classes of Members. The conditions, privileges, powers, and voting rights (if any) of any class of Members may be changed, and one or more additional classes of Membership in the Corporation may be created, and the conditions, voting rights (if any), powers and privileges of each such class may be prescribed, by adoption of an amendment to these Bylaws pursuant to Article 15 of these Bylaws.

2.13. Termination or Suspension of Membership. The Membership of any Member in good standing may be terminated or suspended for material cause (as determined by the Board of Directors in a reasonable and non-discriminatory manner, including but not limited to for failure to satisfy Financial Obligations or otherwise comply with the requirements of Membership for the applicable Membership class as from time to time determined by the Board of Directors), and Membership of any Member not in good standing may be terminated or suspended without cause, by the Board of Directors with a Super Majority Vote. Any Financial Obligations already paid shall not be refundable upon the Member's suspension or termination of Membership, and all Financial Obligations of such Member which may be accrued and unpaid as of such date shall remain due and payable. No termination or suspension of Membership (other than for non-payment of Financial Obligations) shall be effective, however, unless: (a) the Member is given notice of the proposed termination or suspension of Membership and of the reasons therefor; (b) such notice is delivered personally or by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by a national or international overnight courier service, sent to the last address of the Member shown on the Corporation's records; (c) such notice is given at least thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of the proposed termination or suspension of Membership; and (d) such notice sets forth a procedure determined by the Board of Directors to decide whether or not the proposed termination or suspension shall take place, whereby the Member is given the opportunity to be heard by such body, either orally (and represented by counsel if the Member so desires, at its sole cost and expense) or in writing, not less than five (5) days before the effective date of the proposed termination or suspension. Any termination or suspension of Membership for non-payment of Financial Obligations may be effected by written notice from the Chairman of the Corporation (the "Chairman" as defined hereinafter) pursuant to such rules as the Board of Directors may from time to time adopt.

- 2.14. Resignation by Member. A Member may resign as a Member at any time. Any Financial Obligations already paid shall not be refundable in such event, and all Financial Obligations of such Member which may be accrued and unpaid as of such date shall remain due and payable.
- 2.15. Levy of Dues, Assessments or Fees. The Corporation may levy Financial Obligations upon its Members in such amount as may be approved from time to time by the Board of Directors with a Super Majority Vote, but a Member upon learning of any increase in or levy of Financial Obligations, may avoid liability therefor by resigning from Membership pursuant to Section 2.14 above prior to the date such Financial Obligations are due and payable, except where the Member is, by contract with the Corporation or otherwise, independently and explicitly liable for such Financial Obligations. No provision of the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws of the Corporation authorizing such Financial Obligations shall, of itself, create such liability. In no event shall the failure of a Member to pay any Financial Obligations give rise to any claim in favor of the Corporation for indirect or consequential damages. Subject to approval by Super Majority Vote of the Board of Directors and the provisions of Section 2.9, the Corporation may offer discounted Annual Membership Fees to Membership applicants that are Related Companies of then existing Members. Subject to the approval of the Board of Directors with Super Majority Vote, the Corporation may exchange Memberships with other consortia, trade associations and similar non-profit organizations on a no-fee or reduced-fee basis, where it is believed that such cross membership is in the best interests of the Corporation and its Members.
- 2.16. Use of Names. Neither the Corporation nor any Member shall use the name of the other in any form of publicity without the written permission of the other, provided that the Corporation (a) may disclose such Member's Membership in the Corporation as necessary to comply with applicable governmental or regulatory requirements or programs, including but not limited to tax matters and the disclosure and notification requirements of the NCRPA, and (b) may disclose and publicize such Membership by listing the Member's name and (with such Member's prior approval) logo on the Corporation's website or in its marketing materials regarding the Members' Memberships in the Corporation.

3. MEETING OF MEMBERS

- 3.1. Place of Meetings. All meetings of the Members shall be held at such place within or without the State of Delaware and at such times as may be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors.
- 3.2. Annual Meetings. Annual meetings of Members ordinarily shall be held by written consent or by vote submitted by electronic transmission ("Electronic Vote") pursuant to Section 3.10. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, the Board of Directors may call any annual meeting to be held in person.
- 3.3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Members may be called at any time by order of the Board of Directors or at the request in writing of at least ten percent (10%) of the Voting Members eligible to vote at such meeting.
- 3.4. Notice of Meetings. Except as otherwise provided by law or these Bylaws, written notice of each meeting of the Members, annual or special, stating the place, date and hour of the meeting, and, in the case of a special meeting, the general agenda and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, and such other information as may be required by law shall be given not less than thirty nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, to each Member entitled to attend such meeting.
- 3.5. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by statute, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, fifty percent (50%) or more of the Voting Members entitled to vote, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business by the Voting Members at all meetings of the Members; provided, however, that in the case of any action which, by provision of these Bylaws, would require the vote of a single class of the Voting Members, fifty percent (50%) or more of the Voting Members of such class entitled to vote, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business by such class of the Voting Members at all meetings of the Members. Member Committees and Sub-Groups shall have the same rules relating to quorum requirements and voting majorities as provided for in these Bylaws, unless otherwise approved by a Super Majority Vote of the Board of Directors.
- 3.6. Adjournments. Any meeting of Members may be adjourned from time to time to any other time and to any other place at which a meeting of Members may be held under these Bylaws or by law, which time and place and such other information as may be required by law (including means of remote communication for the adjourned meeting, if applicable) shall be announced at the meeting, by the affirmative vote of no less than two-thirds (2/3) of the Voting Members present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote, though less than a quorum, or, if no Voting Member is present or represented by proxy, by any Officer (defined in Section 6.1 below) entitled to preside at or to act as Secretary of such meeting, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the original meeting. If the adjournment is for more than thirty days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each Member.

3.7. Action at Meetings.

3.7.1. Unless the question is one upon which, by express provision of law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, a different vote is required (in which case such express provision shall govern and control the decision of such question), when a quorum is present at any meeting of the Members, the affirmative vote of no less than 50% of all votes cast (disregarding abstentions) by Voting Members, present in person or represented by proxy at such meeting and entitled to vote on the question, shall be the act of the Voting Members; provided, however, in the event that any vote is to be taken of a single class of Voting Members, when a quorum of such class of Voting Members is present at any meeting of the Members, the affirmative vote of no less than 50% of all votes cast (disregarding abstentions) by such class of Voting Members, present in person or represented by proxy at such meeting and entitled to vote on the question, shall be the act of such class of Members; and provided further, that for any action which, by provision of these Bylaws, would require a Super Majority Vote or unanimous vote of the Board of Directors, the same higher percentage of Voting Members as would be required for the Board of Directors to approve such action shall also be required for the Voting Members to approve such action, regardless of whether quorum is present.

3.7.2. Matters to be submitted to a vote of the Voting Members regarding governance of the Corporation as a corporate entity shall, unless otherwise required by these Bylaws or the Certificate of Incorporation, be limited solely to matters expressly requiring the approval of members of a non-stock, not for profit corporation in accordance with applicable law. In the event a vote of the Voting Members is to be taken upon the recommendation of the Board of Directors in respect of any (i) merger or consolidation of the Corporation, (ii) dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Corporation or (iii) sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the assets and property of the Corporation, then the affirmative vote of no less than two-thirds (2/3) of the Voting Members entitled to vote on the question shall decide such question regardless of Section 3.5 above.

3.8. Proxies. Each Member entitled to vote at a meeting of Members, or to express consent or dissent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, may authorize another person or persons to act for him or her by proxy, but no such proxy shall be voted or acted upon after three years from its date, unless the proxy provides for a longer period.

3.9. Waiver of Notice or Consent.

3.9.1. The transactions of any meeting of Members, however called or noticed and wherever held, shall be as valid as though taken at a meeting duly held after call and notice, if a quorum is present either in person or by proxy, and either before or after the meeting, each Voting Member entitled to vote, who is not present in person or by proxy, signs a written waiver of notice, a consent to the holding of the meeting, or an approval of the minutes.

- 3.9.2. A Member's attendance at a meeting also shall constitute a waiver of notice of and presence at that meeting, unless the Member objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened. Also, attendance at a meeting is not a waiver of any right to object to the consideration of matters required to be included in the notice of the meeting but not so included, if that objection is expressly made at the meeting.

3.10. Action Without Meeting or by Electronic Vote.

- 3.10.1. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any annual or special meeting of Members, or at any meeting of a Member Committee, Sub-Group or single class of Voting Members, may be taken without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by Members (or class of Members, as the case may be) making up not less than that percentage of all Members (or such class of Members, as the case may be) as would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all Members (or class of Members, as the case may be) entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. Prompt notice of the taking of the corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those otherwise entitled to vote thereon who have not consented in writing. An electronic transmission consenting to an action to be taken and transmitted by a Member or proxy holder, or by a person or persons authorized to act for a Member or proxy holder, shall be deemed to be written, signed and dated for the purposes of this section, provided that it meets the requirements of Section 3.10.3 below.
- 3.10.2. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any annual or special meeting of Members, or at any meeting of a Member Committee, Sub-Group or single class of Voting Members, may be taken by Electronic Vote if (i) Electronic Votes setting forth the proposed action and meeting the requirements of Section 3.10.3 below are sent to all Members entitled to vote thereon, (ii) Members (or such class of Members, as the case may be) making up not less than that percentage of all Members (or such class of Members, as the case may be) as would be necessary to achieve a quorum at a meeting of such Members (or class of Members, as the case may be) submit Electronic Votes to the Corporation and (iii) Members (or such class of Members, as the case may be) making up not less than that percentage of all Members (or such class of Members, as the case may be) as would be necessary to authorize or approve such action at a meeting at which a quorum of the Members (or class of Members, as the case may be) were present submit Electronic Votes to the Corporation affirmatively approving such action.
- 3.10.3. Any electronic transmission (including Electronic Votes) must set forth or be delivered with information from which the Corporation can determine (i) that the electronic transmission was transmitted by the Member or proxy holder or by a person or persons authorized to act for the Member or proxy holder and (ii) the date on which such Member or proxy holder or authorized person or persons transmitted such electronic transmission. The date on which such electronic transmission is transmitted shall be deemed to be the date on which such consent or Electronic Vote was signed or cast (as the case may be). No consent given by electronic transmission or Electronic Vote shall be deemed to have been delivered until such consent or Electronic Vote is reproduced in paper form and until such paper form shall be delivered to the Corporation by delivery to its registered office in Delaware, its principal place of business or an Officer or agent of the Corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of Members are recorded. Delivery made to the Corporation's registered office shall be made by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. Notwithstanding the foregoing limitations on delivery, consents given by electronic transmission and Electronic Votes may be otherwise delivered to the principal place of business of the Corporation or to an Officer or agent of the Corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of Members are recorded if, to the extent and in the manner provided by resolution of the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

3.10.4. Any copy, facsimile or other reliable reproduction of a consent in writing may be substituted or used in lieu of the original writing for any and all purposes for which the original writing could be used, provided that such copy, facsimile or other reproduction shall be a complete reproduction of the entire original writing.

3.11. Order of Business. The order of business at all meetings of the Members shall be determined by the presiding officer designated by the Board of Directors, but the order of business to be followed at any meeting at which a quorum is present may be changed by a vote of the Members entitled to vote thereat. The Board of Directors may prescribe rules for meetings as are determined by the Board of Directors to be appropriate.

4. DIRECTORS

4.1. Powers; Voting. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors, which shall be, and shall possess all of the powers of, the "Governing Body" of the Corporation as a not-for-profit, nonstock membership corporation under Delaware General Corporation Law. The Board of Directors may exercise all powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these Bylaws directed or required to be exercised or done by the Members.

4.2. Number of Directors. Each Sponsor Member shall appoint no more than one Director. Each Director shall be either (a) an employee of the Member who appoints such individual as a Director or (b) an individual paid contractor of such Member who is under the direction and control of such Member.

4.3. Nomination, Election and Term of Office of Directors

- 4.3.1. Each Sponsor Member (while remaining in good standing) shall be entitled individually to nominate and elect one (1) Director; each Director shall have a term of one (1) year, and thereafter until his or her successor shall be elected and qualified, or until his or her earlier resignation or removal.
- 4.3.2. Each Director may be appointed for an unlimited number of additional one (1) year terms. Each Director is automatically appointed for such additional one (1) year term at the end of each term, unless the respective Member removes such Director or appoints a different Director. No Member (including its Related Companies) shall be represented by more than one (1) Director.
- 4.3.3. A Director shall hold office until the earliest to occur of (i) the expiration of the term for which such Director was elected and such Director's successor is elected and qualified, (ii) the Member which is represented by such Director ceases to be a Sponsor Member, (iii) the death, resignation or removal of the Director, (iv) the combination, by merger, acquisition or otherwise, of two Members each of which has a representative on the Board of Directors, upon which event one of the two representatives, as designated by the surviving Member, shall be deemed to have resigned, or (v) the termination of the employment of such Director by the Member represented by such Director. In addition, during such times as a Member is not in good standing, the attendance and voting rights of any representative on the Board of Directors representing such Member shall be suspended until such time as the Member regains good standing.
- 4.3.4. Each Sponsor Member may designate in writing (which designation may be withdrawn in writing at any time by such Member) two alternative individuals to act as a Director in the original Director's stead, whether for a single meeting or as a standing alternate. Any such alternate Director shall be entitled to (i) attend and vote at all meetings which the original Director does not attend, (ii) sign all written consents in lieu of the original Director, and (iii) otherwise exercise the duties and enjoy the privileges of the original Director in the absence or unavailability of the original Director. In addition, in lieu of making such a substitution, any Director who will be absent for any meeting may deliver a written proxy to the Chairman or any other Director present at that meeting (the "Proxy Holder"), authorizing the Proxy Holder to vote as instructed in such proxy. Any such proxy shall be valid only with respect to the meeting and such specific matters (or with respect to all matters, if so desired) as may be stated in such proxy.
- 4.3.5. The Board of Directors may approve from time to time by a Super Majority Vote of such reasonable attendance and other requirements as it shall deem to be advisable to ensure that Board seats are held by active, contributing individuals. Unless otherwise so required, a Director's voting rights shall automatically be suspended, if such Director is absent from two (2) consecutive meetings of the Board of Directors and is then absent at the next (third) consecutive meeting. Thereafter, such suspension shall automatically be lifted at such time as such Director next attends a meeting of the Board of Directors, with such voting rights resuming at the commencement of such meeting. For the purpose of determining the reasonable attendance, the presence of an alternate Director or by proxy at a meeting, or active participation in Actions by Consent according to Section 4.11, shall constitute presence at the meeting.

- 4.3.6. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else to the contrary in these Bylaws, for the purpose of incorporation of the Corporation, a Director Pro Tem may be appointed, and while serving in such capacity may hold any office of the Corporation. The Director Pro Tem shall be a Director, need not satisfy the requirements of the second sentence of Section 4.2 or the fifth sentence of Section 6.1, and may perform all actions necessary, appropriate or required in the capacity as a Director and Officer of the Corporation, including the establishment of bank accounts, the execution of legal documents, and the approval of applications from those seeking to become Sponsor Members; provided, however, that the term of the Director Pro Tem shall expire automatically on the date when the Corporation has three Sponsor Members.
- 4.4. Resignation. Any Director may resign at any time upon notice to the Corporation in writing or by electronic transmission at its principal place of business or to the Chairman or Secretary. Such resignation shall be effective upon receipt unless it is specified to be effective at some other time or upon the happening of some other event.

A Regular Meeting of the Board of Directors may be held without notice immediately after and at the same place as the annual meeting of Members.
- 4.9. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman or on the written request of two or more Directors, or by one Director in the event that there is only one Director in office. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a Super Majority Vote shall be required in order for any Draft Standard to be formally adopted by the Corporation as a Standard. 4.10.2. In order to pass a Super Majority Vote, a resolution must either (a) be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors at which no less than two-thirds (2/3) of the Directors then in office are in support of such resolution and have voted affirmatively, or (b) have been approved in the manner described in Section 4.11 below by the consent or Electronic Vote of an equivalent number of Directors.

4.11. Action by Consent. Unless otherwise restricted by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice if at least two-thirds (2/3) of the Directors then in office (or such greater number of Directors as may be required by law or the Bylaws of the Corporation for the taking of any such action at a meeting) consent thereto in writing or by electronic transmission, and the writing or writings, or electronic transmission or Notwithstanding the foregoing, the ability of two or more non-consenting Directors to prevent the taking of an action by written consent under clause 4.11(iii) above shall not prevent any such action from being taken at a later date at an actual meeting of the Board of Directors or in accordance with Section 4.10.

- 4.12. Meetings by Electronic Means. Unless otherwise restricted by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, members of the Board of Directors may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors, as the case may be, by means of conference telephone, video conference equipment, or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and such participation in a meeting shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

7. NOTICES

7.1. Delivery.

7.1.1. Unless written notice by mail is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or another provision of these Bylaws, and subject to the provisions below relating to notice by electronic transmission to Members, written notice may be given by electronic mail, telecopy, commercial delivery service, or similar means, addressed to such Director or Member at his, her or its address for such form of delivery as it appears on the records of the Corporation. Without limiting the manner by which notice otherwise may be given effectively to Members, any notice to Members given by the Corporation under any provision of law, the Certificate of Incorporation, or these Bylaws, unless written notice by mail is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or another provision of these Bylaws, shall be effective if given by a form of electronic transmission consented to by the Member to whom the notice is given. Any consent by a Member to receive notice by electronic transmission shall be revocable by that Member by written notice to the Corporation. Any such consent shall be deemed revoked if (1) the Corporation is unable to deliver by electronic transmission two consecutive notices given by the Corporation in accordance with such consent and (2) such inability becomes known to the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary of the Corporation or to the transfer agent, or other person responsible for the giving of notice; provided, however, the inadvertent failure to treat such inability as a revocation shall not invalidate any meeting or other action. Whenever, under the provisions of law, or of the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, written notice is required to be given to any Director or Member, such notice may be given by mail, addressed to such Director or Member, at his, her or its address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid.

7.1.2. Notice given pursuant to this Section shall be deemed given: (1) if by facsimile telecommunication (A) to a Member, when directed to a number at which the Member has consented to receive notice and (B) to a Director, when directed to the number for such Director as it appears on the records of the Corporation; (2) if by electronic mail to (A) a Member, when directed to an electronic mail address at which the Member has consented to receive notice and (B) to a Director, when directed to the electronic mail address for such Director as it appears on the records of the Corporation; (3) if by a posting on an electronic network together with separate notice to the Member or Director of such specific posting, upon the later of (A) such posting and (B) the giving of such separate notice; (4) if by any other form of electronic transmission, when directed to the Member or Director; (5) if by in-hand delivery or oral notice, at the time it is actually given; and (6) if by commercial delivery carrier, mail or similar means, at the time when the same shall be deposited with the carrier, in each case the transmission charge to be paid by the Corporation or the person sending such notice and not by the addressee. An affidavit of the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary or of the transfer agent or other agent of the Corporation that the notice has been given by a form of electronic transmission shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

7.1.3. For purposes of these Bylaws, “electronic transmission” means any form of communication, not directly involving the physical transmission of paper, that creates a record that may be retained, retrieved, and reviewed by a recipient thereof, and that may be directly reproduced in paper form by such a recipient through an automated process.

7.1.4. Without limiting the foregoing, the Corporation adopts electronic mail as its principal source of communication with its Members. Each Member acknowledges and agrees that the Corporation shall not be under any obligation (except as required by law or these Bylaws) to send any notice to any Member by any means other than electronic mail, and it is therefore the responsibility of each Member to avail itself of and make such arrangements as may be necessary to receive notice in such fashion.

7.2. Waiver of Notice. Whenever any notice is required to be given under the provisions of law or of the Certificate of Incorporation or of these Bylaws, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to said notice, or a waiver by electronic transmission by the person entitled to notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

8. INDEMNIFICATION

8.1. Actions other than by or in the Right of the Corporation. The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Director, Officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys’ fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceedings, had no reasonable cause to believe this conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

- 8.2. Actions by or in the Right of the Corporation. The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Director, Officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware or such other court shall deem proper.
- 8.3. Success on the Merits. To the extent that any person described in Section 8.1 or 8.2 of this Article 8 has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in said Sections, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he or she shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection therewith.
- 8.4. Specific Authorization. Any indemnification under Section 8.1 or 8.2 of this Article 8 (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of any person described in said Sections is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in said Sections. Such determination shall be made (1) by a majority vote of such Directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, even though less than a quorum, or (2) by the Members of the Corporation.
- 8.5. Advance Payment. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of any person described in Sections 8.1 and 8.2 to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to indemnification by the Corporation as authorized in this Article 8.
- 8.6. Non-Exclusivity. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, the other Sections of this Article 8 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those provided indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, vote of Voting Members or disinterested Directors or otherwise, both as to action in his or her official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office.
- 8.7. Jurisdiction of Delaware Court of Chancery. The Delaware Court of Chancery is vested with exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all actions for advancement of expenses or indemnification. The Delaware Court of Chancery may summarily determine the Corporation's obligation to advance expenses (including attorney's fees).

- 8.8. Insurance. The Board of Directors may authorize the Corporation to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a Director, Officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in any such capacity, or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability under the provisions of this Article 8.
- 8.9. Continuation of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article 8 shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a Director, Officer, employee or agent of the Corporation and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.
- 8.10. Severability. If any word, clause or provision of this Article 8 or any award made hereunder shall for any reason be determined to be invalid, the provisions hereof shall not otherwise be affected thereby but shall remain in full force and effect.
- 8.11. Intent of Article. The intent of this Article 8 is to provide for indemnification and advancement of expenses to the fullest extent permitted by Section 145 of the General Corporation Law of Delaware. To the extent that such Section or any successor section may be amended or supplemented from time to time, this Article 8 shall be amended automatically and construed so as to permit indemnification and advancement of expenses to the fullest extent from time to time permitted by law.
